

Please keep the rules as they currently stand. The public cannot afford to increase the number of radio or TV stations to control by a limited number of companies